THE ACCIDENT REGORD.

The Revolver Gets in Its Work in Benwood Yesterday.

A LITTLE GIRL PAINFULLY CUT

On Twentieth Street Last Evening by Falling Onto a Knife Blade-Other Casualties of Sunday and Saturday. Circumstances of the Shooting at Benwood that was Nearly a Tragedy,

Yesterday afternoon the old story of the revolver in careless hands was repeated, and that the result was not fatal is but a lucky chance. The two parties interested are William Bogard and his wife. Mr. Bogard, who is but twenty, and his wife but sixteen years of age were sitting in their home in South Benwood. Mr. Bogard was engaged in cleaning a revolver and Mrs. Bogard nursing their infant child, when a shot was discharged, striking the side of Mrs. Bogard's head, glaucing along the skull Bogard's ness, and and off at the top.

Although the wound is ugly it is not at all dangerous. Many stories were current, but no arrests were made, as the affair was purely accidental.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

A Little Child Receives a Bad Wound While Playing With a Knife.

Last evening about 7:30 o'clock a little grandchild of Mrs. Kinney, of 43 Twentieth street, was playing with a large open pen-knife and wandered down to the corner of Market street. Here it fell down and its face struck the knife blade. The large number of people passing at the time were attracted by the screams of the child, but seemed bewildered. Finally a lady picked up the child and carried it into Dr. Taylor's office with the knife still sticking in the child's check. The blade was removed with some difficulty and was found to have penetrated the check bone about an inch and a quartar. The wound is a very painful one, but it is not necessarily dangerous. Dr. Taylor dressed the wound. It is not known how the child obtained the knife, as it is a very dangerous plaything for a small child.

Saturday Accidents. down to the corner of Market street.

Saturday Accidents.
While hammering a bar of steel at the Wheeling steel plant on Saturday, Frank Thonor, an employe, mot with an accident that may cause him to lose an eye. A scale of the steel flow off, striking him in the eye and penetrating both the lid and the eyeball. It was an extremely dangerous wound.

Will Harris, a Cleveland, Lorain & Whosling brakeman, living at Bridge-port, was severely squeezed in the stomach while coupling cars on Saturday. He was brought to his home and put under a physician's care, who reported that no bones were broken.

On Saturday afternoon a young son of Micnael Eisenberg, of Bonwood, met with an accident that might have resulted fatailty. As it was the boy received injuries that will lay him up for some time. The injured boy and an older one were sitting on the end gate of a wagon when a jar precipitated them both to the payement when the youngster had his clavicle broken and his shoulder blade di-located. The injury, though painful, is not necessarily latal.

Industrial Notes.

The Wheeling steel works will resume Tuesday morning.

The Beliaire steel works went on full in every department this morning. There were over 150 potters in the la-bor procession Saturday. This was a pretty good showing for the potters' organization. The window glass men from the In-diana gas fields are all preparing to go back on short notice, as they think there will be no strike in that industry now.

The beaters and rollers of the La Belle mill will go on in full this morning and the nail mill to-morrow. The tack hands are at present laid of, and the date of their resumption is not known. Owing to the introduction of new shapes at the North Wheeling pottery, there was considerable misunderstand-ing as to the correct prices to be paid ing as to the correct prices to be paid for the work. The employes and the managers hold a conference, however, and overything was satisfactorily adjusted.

The turnout of the Riverside mill lodge of Knighte of Labor, the recently instituted organization of that establishment, in the labor demonstration was something phenomenal. They had the largest showing of any industrial body in the parade. Besides those in line more than a hundred who were on the night before were unable to participate in the parade.

A New Livery Firm.

Messrs. Sweeney & Smith, is the title of a new firm consisting of Mr. Andrew Sweeney, assistant etty clerk, and Mr. James Smith, formerly of Clinton, W. Vn., who has recently been conducting a boarding stable near the old jail on Eoff street. Yesterday they took possession of the livery stable on Market atreet near the ereek bridge, owned by R. B. Merchant. The members of the new firm are both experienced horsemen and may be depended upon to conduct a good stable. Mr. Smith will manage the new stable. Mr. Merchant has not definitely decided upon his future plans.

Some things to remember in selecting Wall Paper: Blues, grays and drabs for south rooms; roles, crange and yellows for north rooms; olives, ecrus and old blues for west rooms; yellows, terra cotta and old rose for cast rooms. Come to 1011 Main street for ideas.

"I know an old roldier who had chronic diarrhoa of long standing to have been permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Choiera and Diarrhoa Remedy," says Edward Shumpik, a prominent druggist of Minappolis, Minn. "I have sold the remedy in this city for over seven years and consider it superior to any other medicine now on the market for bowel complaints."

A DASTARDLY ATTEMPT

At Criminal Assault on a Child Was

Patrick Burke is about forty years of age and is a boarder at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Gardiner, in Ætnaville. Saturday evening Mrs. Gardiner came over to Wheeling on a shopping expedi-tion and left Burke and her little daughtion and left Burke and her little daughter, Gertrude, nine years old, at the house. Barke about 8 o'clock made an attempt at criminal assault on the child, but the child resisted and yelled so lustily that Burke desisted and left the house. The girl went to a neighbor's licuse, where she remained until her mother return. She then told her experience with Burke. The mother was of course indignant, and at once went to the authorities of Bridgeport and had a warrant issued for Burke's arrest. He was found and soon afterward jailed. The trial will take place this mornium The trial will take place this morning before the mayor of Bridgeport.

WHEELING MAN GONE.

Simon Jones Falls Dead on the Street at St. Clairsville,

At St. Clairsville, Simon Jones, of Wheeling, a former resident of that place, dropped dead in front of Boroff's at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Mr. Jones had been in that town a day or two and seemed in his usual health.

or two and seemed in his usual health. He was walking over town, when he stopped to speak to his friend Col. J. F. Charlesworth. After speaking a few words he fell in his friend's arms and was with ease let down to the pavement, where he expired instantly.

He leaves four sons and three daughters, who made their home with him in this city. Albert, the eldest son, is a mail carrier. Mr. Jones faithfully served his country in company D, Forty-third Ohio Infantry. The Drammond G. A. R. post had charge of the funeral, which occurred from the St. Clairsville M. E. church at 4 o'clock Sunday. He was a quiet, law-abiding cilizen, was liked by all who knew him, and it was with regret that friends heard of his sudden death.

CAPTAIN DOVENER SPEAKS To the Ciny-Union Republican Cinb This Evening.

This evening at the meeting of the Clay-Union Republican club at Bishoff's hall on Eighteenth street in East Wheeling, Captain E. B. Dovener will deliver his first address of the campaign in Wheeling since he was nomipaign in Wheeling since he was nominated for Congress at New Martinaville. The meetings of the Clay-Union club have already been noted for large turnouts and this one with the eloquent Dovenor as the speaker of the evening will no doubt be a large and enthusiastic one. The ball will commence its
